

COVID CRISIS EFFECTS IN ECONOMICS RESEARCH

Ratish C Gupta, Daly College Business School Indore, India

The Covid-19 crisis is affecting the way that we work and we're all learning how to work more remotely. It may also affect the way we go about conducting research. This pandemic is leading us all to reflect on how we do things. Researchers should take time to pause and reflect research topic and design. For example, if you're researcher you could focus on desk-based aspects of the research.

In current scenario researcher can utilize their time by writing quality research paper or article or case studies. It is equally important to choose reputed journal where it can get published. How you can be productive if you work on your research project during lockdowns? Remember all those articles, research papers you've bookmarked but never read? Now is the time to revisit your bookmarks or your reference manager, and get some serious reading done. When you are busy in your daily routine work, it is difficult to find time for focused writing. If you're a Researcher, this is a good time to dedicate a few hours to writing a paper. In current scenario researcher can utilize their time by writing quality research paper or article or case studies. It is equally important to choose reputed journal where it can get published.
